
The Wharton Leadership 360 Assessment is a tool that allows you to collect data from your colleagues on your leadership skills and abilities.

Asking For Feedback

Who To Ask For Feedback

- 7 - 12 respondents in total, including former managers, peers, and/or direct reports
- 7 is the minimum—you can nominate as many as you like
 - You will not be able to view your report until you have 7 pieces of external feedback and your completed self-evaluation
- Respondents will not see how you categorize them in the system

How To Ask For Feedback

- Contact your respondents personally to invite them to be a part of the process
- Have a conversation with each respondent before adding them to Qualtrics
- You can personalize the script below

As an MBA student at the Wharton School, I am participating in the Executive Coaching and Feedback Program. This program entails working with an executive coach over the next six months to further develop my leadership skills. As the foundation for this coaching work, I am gathering feedback on myself and my behaviors. I would like to include your perspective in the process. Having this information will help me make the most purposeful and informed choices while at Wharton.

Feedback for this program will be collected through an online 360 tool administered by Qualtrics. You will receive an email from Qualtrics containing a link to the survey. The survey is a mix of open-ended and likert-scale questions pertaining to my behaviors and leadership competencies, and it should take 20-25 minutes to complete. Although I will have access to a feedback report, all responses will remain anonymous

Thank you for helping me to develop myself during my time here at Wharton.

Logging in to Qualtrics

After 6/25/18 : Log in through your Qualtrics email invitation or here:

https://wharton_360.qualtrics.com/360

Adding Respondents to Qualtrics

- Click “Invite Others to Evaluate You” link
- Add each respondent individually: first name, last name, and email address
- Categorize them as one of the following: Manager, Peer, Direct Report, Fellow Student or Other
- Respondents will automatically receive an email invitation from McNulty Leadership Program at Wharton with the subject “Wharton Leadership 360 Assessment Evaluator Invite” followed by your name

Survey Translations

- Rough survey translations are automatically available through Google Translate for Chinese, French, Japanese and Spanish—the survey will open in the language that your respondent’s browser is set to
- If you need a translation for another language, please email your request as soon as possible to whartonlp@wharton.upenn.edu

Completion Status

- Automated reminders will be sent through the system
- In order to protect the anonymity of your respondents, other than the manager category, you need 2 respondents per category to complete your 360 in order for their responses to show on your report. If you have 1 respondent complete in the Peer, Direct Report, Fellow Student or Other category, their results will not be included in your report.
EXAMPLE: If you only have 1 direct report or 1 peer, we suggest you categorize them as “Other” with additional respondents in that category so you are able to see their feedback.

Accessing Your Report in Qualtrics

- Qualtrics will generate an email once a minimum of 7 responses and your self-evaluation are complete
- Download or email your report by clicking “View Report”
- New responses will be automatically incorporated into your report as they are received, but you will not be notified
