Upper Body Layers
Layer clothing combining different garments in order to achieve proper thermoregulation. Avoid cotton when purchasing as this material is a poor insulator when wet.
Item	Item	Comments	#	Purchase-Price
	Base layer T-shirt.	Mid-weight underwear top made of wool, synthetic, or Capilene ®. No Cotton. One t-shirt can be used for trekking and another t-shirt can be saved for the end of the expedition as a clean item of clothing  Recommended link	2	$30 - $40
	Base layer T-shirt	Light weight synthetic t-shirt. Used on its own mainly for the desert trekking section. Also can be used in combination with a base layer at night or if its cold.	2	$20-$30
	Base Layer (Mid-Weight)	Mid-weight underwear top made of wool, synthetic, or Capilene ®. No Cotton.  Recommended link	2	$50 - $60
	Middle Layer (Fleece Pullover)	Polyester fleece pullover/expedition weight top of Polartec 200. It is great to have pit zips to allow for ventilation.  Recommended link	1	$90 - $150

	Top Layer Down Jacket	Should fit comfortably over top your base and middle-layers and fit comfortably underneath your rain jacket. It's a great investment.  Recommended link	1	$250
	Rain Jacket	A sturdy, roomy waterproof jacket with a hood. Some examples of waterproof brands are HyVent, H2No, Precip and Gore-Tex. Look for one with pit zips.  Recommended link	1	$150 - $250
Lower Body Layers
For this expedition, you will need 1-2 synthetic insulating layers (an under layer and a thicker pair of fleece pants. All layers must fit comfortably over each other. If you tend to get cold easily, add a middle layer between the base layer and fleece pants.
Item	Item	Comments	#	Purchase-Price
	Base Layer (Mid-Weight Synthetic)	Mid-weight bottoms of high performance, polyester, polypropylene, ZeO2 or Capilene®. Cotton and cotton blends are not acceptable.  Recommended link	2	$35 - $45
	Expedition level Fleece mid-layer	Can be worn alone or over top your base layer. They are great for around camp or to sleep in.  Recommended link	1	$50 - $60

	Trekking Pants	Should fit comfortably over all lower body layers. Side zippers allow the pants to be put on over boots. Lightweight "running pants" are not durable enough. One pant can be convertible in to shorts. Recommended link	2	$55 - 85
	Trekking short pants	Shorts are used during the trekking section and especially during river crossings. The must be synthetic for quick drying. If you've brought a convertible pant, you might want to skip this item.	1	$30-$65
	Rain Pants / Waterproof Cover	These pants should fit comfortably over all lower body layers. Side zippers allow the pants to be put on over boots. Must be waterproof. Some examples of waterproof brands are HyVent, H2No, Precip and Gore-Tex. Skiers tend to already have a pair. Recommended link	1	$80 - $100
	Sports Bra for Women	Bras must be silk or synthetic. The wicking/quick dry fabric is essential for the transfers of moisture away from your skin to the exterior of the bra where it will evaporate quickly. Recommended link	3	$25 - $40
Head, Neck &amp; Hand Layers

	Windproof Gloves	Windproof and warm. If they are waterproof as well, that helps as it can rain.  Recommended link	1	$60 - $80
Sleeping Gear
Item	Item	Comments	#	Purchase-Price
	Sleeping Bag	We suggest a 14 degree F bag. If you have a bag close enough, consider purchasing a liner bag which can add several degrees of comfort. Can be down or synthetic. If you know your body gets cold, you should get a warmer bag.  Recommended link	1	$150 - $200
	Compression Sack	Use this to compact your sleeping bag to help with space in your backpack.  Recommended link	1	$25 - $30
	Inflatable Mattress & Stuff Sack	We highly recommend self-inflating sleeping mattresses. Thermarest and NEMO are great brands.  Recommended link	1	$90 - $140
