Participant Experiences: Testimonials

“P3 is a reflective time to take a break from the fast paced and intense culture of Wharton and figure out what truly matters to you. It also allows students to get to know each other on a deeper basis.”

“I was lucky to join a great group of people and loved the camaraderie that we shared in all of the sessions. It was great exploring differences and similarities in ideologies. I left each session learning a lot more than I expected to learn before joining the session.”
