

P3 Information & FAQs

McNulty Leadership Program

P3 Overview

WHAT P3 IS:

A unique collaboration amongst Wharton students, faculty, and staff

A small group of peers who come together to explore what matters to them

A valuable opportunity to connect with classmates through deep and meaningful conversations

HOW YOU ACHIEVE IT:

Full commitment to attend each session

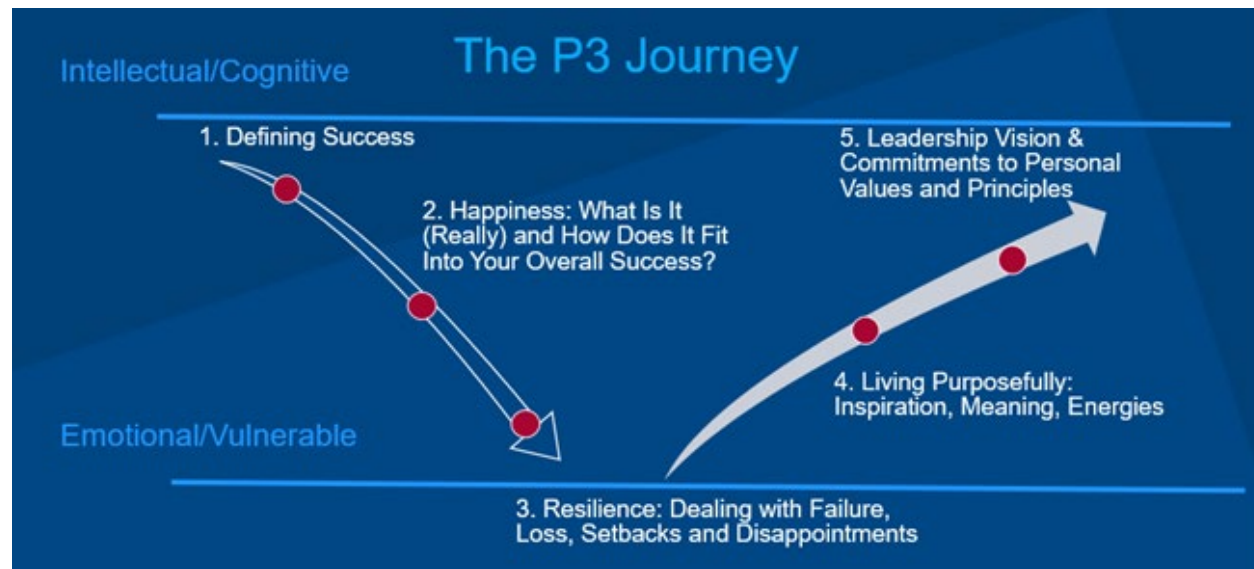

A willingness to share your story – a sincere effort to engage with your peers

Openness to listen attentively and without judgement

The P3 Experience: What to Expect

- Five weeks of readings, guided journal reflections, and small-group conversations
- Dive deep into the topics of happiness and success
- Examine opportunities to link day-to-day decision-making and behaviors with your identification of what is authentically fulfilling
- A rotational leadership role, sharing the opportunity to build essential facilitation skills
- Learning about self in contrast to others – appreciating the diversity of responses to P3 activities which can illuminate assumptions and underlying beliefs that are actually choices.

Enrollment Questions Preview

- Select Time Slot – a dependable commitment to the same meeting time each week enables students to deepen supportive relationships.
- Share 3 Key Aspects of Identity - A hallmark of the P3 program is the opportunity to hear a diversity of perspectives during discussions. An option to share aspects of your identity that MBAs have asked us to draw upon when marching participants to new groups.
- Weekly Facilitation Preference – Whether based on P3 topic or your schedule, confirm at which session you'll guide the conversation.
- Alignment with Your Goals – ground yourself in your personal priorities for participation, for example:
  - Gaining self-awareness
  - Learning from diverse viewpoints
  - Building facilitation skills in a supportive context
  - Activating new friendships
  - Clarify goals for Wharton and beyond

Participant Experiences: Testimonials

“P3 is a reflective time to take a break from the fast paced and intense culture of Wharton and figure out what truly matters to you. It also allows students to get to know each other on a deeper basis.”

“I was lucky to join a great group of people and loved the camaraderie that we shared in all of the sessions. It was great exploring differences and similarities in ideologies. I left each session learning a lot more than I expected to learn before joining the session.”

“The life reflection modules such as Happiness and Success provided opportunities for us to share our life stories. Everyone opened up to their thoughts, struggles and reflections. It’s really broadened my perspective.”

P3 FAQs

Can you participate in P3 and other McNulty offerings?

- Yes! P3 is an open-enrollment program and does not preclude you from participating in any other McNulty program, including any of the McNulty Leadership Program Fellowships. Be sure to confirm your calendar availability given other academic, co- and extra-curricular commitments.

Can P3 groups meet virtually?

- Groups are matched taking into account individual preferences for meeting virtually or in-person. Where possible, we recommend the group aim to meet at least once in person.

When can I take P3?

- Fall P3 is available only to 2Y MBA students; spring P3 is offered to both classes of full-time MBAs as well as WEMBA students. You can participate in P3 more than once – for example, to hone your goals the first time and then a second experience to meet new peers before graduation.
